OF THE SOVEREIGN MILITARY
HOSPITALLER ORDER
OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM
OF RHODES AND OF MALTA

Promulgated 3rd September 2022

This official translation according to art. 61 § 2 Const. is not be intended as a modification of the Italian text approved by the Holy Father on September 3, 2022.

In the event of differing interpretations, the official text in the Italian language shall prevail. (Art. 61, § 3 Constitutional Charter).

CONSTITUTIONAL CHARTER

TITLE I THE ORDER AND ITS NATURE

Article 1

Origin and Nature of the Order

- § 1 - The Sovereign Military and Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem of Rhodes and of Malta, by tradition chivalrous and nobiliary, arose from a group of hospitallers of the Hospice of Saint John of Jerusalem, who had been called upon by historical circumstances to augment their original charitable enterprise with chivalrous service for the defence of pilgrims to the Holy Land and of Christian civilization in the East, which in time became sovereign on the Islands of Rhodes and later Malta.
- § 2 - It is a lay religious Order, recognised by Pope Paschal II in the Bull Pie postulatio voluntatis, and is a subject of international law.
- § 3 - In this Constitution and in the Code, the Sovereign Military Order of Malta is also referred to as the “Order of Malta” or simply as the “Order”.
- § 4 - In the Articles which follow, the term Code refers to the Code of the Order.

Article 2

Purpose

- § 1 - The purpose of the Order is the promotion of the glory of God through the sanctification of its Members through the tuitio fidei and obsequium pauperum, especially with the poor and the sick, in service to the Holy Father, in accordance with its ancient traditions.
- § 2 - True to the divine precepts and to the admonitions of our Lord Jesus Christ, guided by the teachings of the Church, the Order bears witness to the Christian virtues of charity and brotherhood and leads its Members to become faithful disciples of Christ.
- § 3 - The Order carries out its charitable works for the sick, the needy and the refugees without distinction of religion, ethnicity, sex, origin and age. The Order fulfils its institutional tasks especially by providing social and health assistance, particularly to victims of extraordinary disasters and of war, bearing witness to Christian charity.

Article 3

Territorial Organization

- § 1 - The Order's territorial organizations comprise Priories, Sub-Priories and National Associations. Certain Priories may be upgraded to Grand Priories by a resolution of the Chapter General.
- § 2 - It is the exclusive competence and responsibility of the Priories, Sub-Priories and Associations to rule the Members of the Order, and to promote and supervise the hospitaller and charitable works of the Order, subject to the prerogatives and responsibilities of the Grand Master. They manage their assets under the supervision of the Grand Magistracy. They may also act as instrumental bodies having an international or local nature pursuant to Article 40 of this Constitutional Charter.

Article 4

Sovereignty

The Order is a subject of international law and exercises sovereign functions in respect of the purpose referred to in Article 2 herein. It maintains diplomatic relations with States and International Organisations¹.

Article 5

Relations with the Apostolic See

- § 1 - The Order of Malta has, ipso iure, a public juridical personality in the Church.
- § 2 - Religious Members through their vows, as well as Members of the Second Class through the Promise of Obedience, are subject to their own Superiors.
- § 3 - The churches and conventual institutions of the Order are exempt from the jurisdiction of diocesan bishops and are directly subject to the Holy See.
- § 4 - In accordance with Canon Law, the acquired rights, customs and privileges granted or recognised to the Order by the Supreme Pontiff, remain in force unless expressly revoked.
- § 5 - The Supreme Pontiff appoints as his representative to the Order a Cardinal who takes the title of Cardinalis Patronus, who may be given special powers. The Cardinalis Patronus, as a sign of the Holy Father's attention for the Order, has the task of promoting the spiritual interests of the Order and its Members as well as the relations between the Holy See and the Order.

§ 6 - As a subject of international law, the Order has diplomatic representation to the Holy See, according to the norms of international law.

§ 7 - The religious nature of the Order does not prejudice the exercise of its prerogatives as a subject of international law recognised by States.

Article 6

Sources of the Order's Law

The sources of the Order's law are:

- a) the Constitution, the Code of the Order and the Canon Law;
- b) the acts of the Roman Pontiff of a regulatory nature concerning the Order;
- c) the legislative provisions according to Article 15 § 3 a) of the Constitution;
- d) international agreements ratified according to Article 15 § 3 d) of the Constitution;
- e) the customs and privileges legitimately acquired by the Order and not specifically revoked.

Article 7

Official Language

The official language of the Order is Italian. Official communications may also be conducted in other languages, in addition to Italian.

Article 8

Flags, Insignia and Armorial Bearings of the Order

§ 1 - The flag of the Order bears either the white Latin cross on a red field or the white eight-pointed cross (cross of Malta) on a red field.

§ 2 - The armorial bearings of the Order display a white Latin cross on a red oval field, surrounded by a rosary, all superimposed on a white eight-pointed cross and displayed under a princely mantle surmounted by a crown.

§ 3 - A special regulation, approved by the Grand Master with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council, defines the characteristics and the use of the flags, the insignia and the armorial bearings of the Order.

TITLE II

THE MEMBERS OF THE ORDER

Article 9

The Classes

- § 1 - The Sovereign Military Order of Malta comprises Members who participate, according to their state of life, in fulfilling the charism and mission of the Order. The Members of the First Class, or Knights of Justice also called Professed, and the Professed Conventual Chaplains, who have taken both temporary simple and solemn religious vows, are the essential core of the Order. They are accorded full duties and rights. Given, however, the lay nature of the Order, the Professed Chaplains have only active voice except for what provided in Article 29, par. 1, d), according to which they have passive voice
- § 2 - The Members of the Second Class, who are bound to the Order through the Promise of Obedience, and the Members of the Third Class, by reason of their status are given specific duties and rights.
- § 3 - Individual Classes and categories of membership are governed by the Code.
- § 4 - The Code provides for the appointment of Members ad honorem.

Article 10

Obligations of the Members

- § 1 - Professed Members, aware of their vocation and the obligations freely undertaken before the Church and the Order, shall conform their lives to the spirit of the Gospel and the Magisterium of the Church according to the Constitutional Charter and the Code, strive for religious perfection and devote themselves to the apostolic work of the Order, bearing witness to the Faith and Charity.
- § 2 - The Members of the Second and Third Class, in accordance with the duties of their State of life and the charism of the Order, shall lead exemplary lives according to the Gospel, the teachings and precepts of the Church, and devote themselves to the apostolic works of the Order, bearing witness to the Faith and Charity.

TITLE III

Article 53

The Commissioner

§ 1 - For grave cause, the Grand Master, after hearing the Professed Members of the Association and with the consent of the Sovereign Council, may place an Association under temporary administration.

§ 2 - Unless otherwise provided for in the decree of extraordinary administration, all Association offices shall lapse and the Commissioner shall assume the relevant powers.

§ 3 - The Commissioner shall convene the Assembly for the renewal of the statutory bodies within the time limits set out in the decree of appointment and in any case no later than one year after taking office.

§ 4 - The Commissioner must be a Professed Knight, or a Knight in Obedience for at least five years, and may not be a member of the Association.

TITLE V

THE GOODS OF THE ORDER

Article 54

The Nature and Administration of Goods

- § 1 - The Order, the Pories, the Sub-Pories, the Associations and other organisations of the Order, as public legal persons, may acquire, manage, dispose of, and use economic goods in accordance with the law.
- § 2 - Their economic assets are administered by the immediate manager of the public legal entity in accordance with the law of the Order and Canon Law.
- § 3 - No new or increased expenditure in excess of the approved budget can be approved without first determining the corresponding revenue or establishing the means to pay for it.
- § 4 - The immediate manager of the legal entity takes invalid actions if these exceed the ordinary administration, unless he has acted in accordance with the following articles.

Article 55

Extraordinary Administration

- § 1 - Expenditures, disposals, debts and other transactions for which, in accordance with Canon Law, the Code or the By-Laws governing the public canonical entity, the permission of the competent authority must be obtained, are acts of extraordinary administration.
- § 2 - The permission of the Holy See must always be obtained for validly disposing of real estate and movable property, precious goods of artistic or historical value and ex-votos donated to the Church.

Article 56

Determination of Acts of Extraordinary Administration

- § 1 - The Chapter General determines the amount above which the Grand Master ad validitatem needs the consent of the Sovereign Council and the Council of Professed, given by secret ballot, to incur debts, dispose of assets or incur expenses. The Chapter General also determines the amount above which the written permission of the Grand Master is required in order for the organisations of the Order to validly dispose of assets, incur expenses or debts.
- § 2 - The Priory or Sub-Priory Assembly or the Assembly of the Association determines the amount beyond which the Prior, Sub-Prior or President needs the consent of the respective Chapter or the Board of Directors of the Association, given by secret ballot, in order to validly dispose of goods, incur expenses or debts. The Priory, Sub-Priory or Association Assembly also determines the amount beyond which the written permission of the Prior, Sub-Prior or President is required in order for the organisations of the Order to validly dispose of goods, incur expenses or debts within their respective areas.

§ 3 - In the cases referred to in § 1 above, the acquisition of the non-binding opinion of the Board of Auditors is required ad validitatem.

Article 57

Reporting

The immediate manager of the legal entity is required to submit an annual balance sheet and budget to his Superior in accordance with the Code and the By-Laws.

Article 58

Supervision

Superiors have the duty and the right to carefully supervise the administration of all assets belonging to the legal entities subject to them.

Article 59

Contributions of the Organisations of the Order

The Chapter General determines the annual contribution of the Pories, Sub-Pories and Associations for the needs of the Grand Magistracy, in proportion to their respective economic capacity.

TITLE VI
TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 60

Transitional Provisions

- § 1 - This Constitutional Charter shall not affect pardons, privileges, dispensations and acquired rights with regard to the common life and the regime required by the solemn vow of poverty. The right of everyone to choose to comply with the provisions of this Constitutional Charter shall remain unaffected.
- § 2 - The Grand Master, after hearing the Sovereign Council and the Council of Professed, shall, if necessary, issue the appropriate transitional rules to regulate the relationships pending at the time of the entry into force of the Constitutional Charter and the Code.

Article 61

Text and Official Translations of the Constitution

- § 1 - The Constitutional Charter and the Code are written in Italian. The Grand Master, with the advice of the Sovereign Council, shall provide for official translations in other languages.
- § 2 - The official text in Italian, bearing the signature of the Grand Master and the Seal of State, is kept in the Archives of the Grand Magistracy.
- § 3 - In the event of differing interpretations, the official text in the Italian language shall prevail.

Article 62

Observance of the Laws of the Order

The provisions contained in the Laws of the Order do not as such constitute a precept under penalty of sin, unless they concern matters of the Divine Laws, the Vows and the Promise of Obedience.

CODE

TITLE I GENERAL REGULATIONS

Article 1

Nature of the Code of the Order of Malta

This Code regulates the life, the organization and the activity of the Order in accordance with its Constitutional Charter.

Article 2

Interpretation of Laws

The interpretation of laws conforms to Book One of the Code of Canon Law.

Article 3

Promulgation of Laws and Publication of Decrees

Laws and decrees are promulgated or published, respectively, in the Bollettino Ufficiale. Legislative acts, unless there are dispositions to the contrary, become effective thirty days after the date of publication.

Article 4

Dispensation from Laws

The Grand Master, within the limits of the Constitutional Charter, may dispense in individual cases from the observance of the provisions of this Code, except in matters concerning: vows, prescriptions of ecclesiastical law and Government structure.

Article 5

Name of the Order

The name of the Order, according to the tradition, may be abbreviated to SMOM. Any other name will have to be approved by the Chapter General.

TITLE II MEMBERS OF THE ORDER

CHAPTER I MEMBERS OF THE FIRST CLASS

Article 6

Knights of Justice and Conventual Chaplains

- § 1 - Because of their Solemn Vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, Knights of Justice and Conventual Chaplains are religious people in every respect and abide by the universal and specific rules that apply to them. Answering to their divine vocation and driven by the power of Grace, they follow the path of our Lord Christ, offering and consecrating their lives themselves, in accordance with the charisms of the Order, to God and to tuitio fidei and obsequium pauperum, and abide by the laws of the Order to achieve evangelical perfection and sanctification. For the love of Christ they make themselves “servants of the poor”, especially of the sick, and are active in spreading the Gospel through charity. Under the authority of the Superiors, Knights of Justice and Conventual Chaplains are at the service of the Order.
- § 2 - Conventual Chaplains are incardinated in the Order. Their main duty is the pastoral care of the Members of the Order, especially the Knights of Justice, with whom they share the same calling to religious life and the confraternal ties arising from consecration. They are particularly committed to the religious, liturgical and spiritual formation of the Members of the Order. Under the authority of the Superiors, they also devote themselves to spiritual assistance in charitable, relief and missionary works of the Order, as well as to the service of the Order’s churches and conventual houses.
- § 3 - In the common confraternal life, according to the charism of the Order, the Members of the First Class, and consequently the entire family of the Order, experience and testify the presence of Christ, alive and resurrected. The Convent and the conventual life are the foundation on which the spiritual life and the charitable actions of the Professed are built, in their administering and directing the works of the Order. Nevertheless, in view of the peculiar nature and purpose of the Order, the Grand Master may grant, in specific cases and for justified reasons, particular forms and patterns of religious life.
- § 4 - In order to guarantee observance of the religious discipline, the Grand Master, with the deliberative vote of the Members of the Council of Professed, issues specific Regulations prepared by the Grand Commander.

SECTION I
ASPIRANCY

Article 7
Aspirancy

The Grand Master, with the approval of the Council of Professed, admits Aspirants to the Novitiate

- b) not be subject to any impediment established by the Constitutional Charter, the Code, or Canon Law;
- c) be driven by honest intentions;
- d) be suited to serve the sick and the poor of Jesus Christ and to dedicate himself to the services of the Church and of the Holy See according to the spirit of the Order.

Article 9
Request for Admission as Aspirant to the First Class

§ 1 - A candidate Aspirant must address his request for admission to the Superior competent by territory.

§ 2 - If there is no entity of the Order in the area where the candidate resides, the request for admission must be presented directly to the Grand Master.

Article 10
Those Responsible for Aspirants

§ 1 - Once the request for admission is accepted by the Superior competent by territory, the Aspirant is entrusted by the Superior to a Knight of Justice expressly designated and to a Spiritual Director, a Conventual Chaplain or a Conventual Chaplain ad honorem.

§ 2 - The designated Knight must present a written report to the Superior on the personality, conduct and suitability of the Aspirant.

Article 11

Duration of Aspirancy

- § 1 - Aspirancy must last a minimum of three months and a maximum of one year, during which time the Aspirant is formed according to what is established in the Ratio Formationis published by the Grand Master with the approval of the Council of Professed.
- § 2 - At the end of the Aspirancy term the candidate must present a written request to the Grand Master in order to be admitted to Novitiate.

SECTION II

NOVITIATE

Article 12

Establishment of Novitiate

- § 1 - Novitiate is established, transferred or suppressed by the Grand Master with the advice of the Council of Professed.
- §. 2 - The Novitiate must be carried out in accordance with the provisions of art. 22 of the Code.
- § 3 - The established periods of participation in obsequium pauperum projects may take place outside the novitiate Community, as directed by the Master of Novitiate
- § 4 - In particular cases the Grand Master, with the advice of the Council of Professed, may allow — exceptionally— a candidate to spend his Novitiate in another house of his choice, under the guidance of an expert religious in lieu of the Master of Novitiate.

Article 13

Master of Novitiate

- § 1 - The Grand Master appoints a Master of Novitiate and a Vice Master for each Novitiate. These are both chosen from among Knights of Justice and Conventual Chaplains of at least forty years of age and three years of Solemn Vows, having specific qualification for formation and vocational discernment.
- § 2 - The Master of Novitiate is the sole responsible for the human and spiritual formation of the Novice according to the Ratio Formationis.
- § 3 - The Master of Novitiate must see that the Novice is faithful to religious observance and participates in the obsequium pauperum of the Order as it is prescribed for Professed Knights, discern his vocation and test his accountability in fulfilling his commitments to the Order. Shortly before the conclusion of the Novitiate, the Master presents to the Superiors a written report expressing his opinion on whether the Novice is eligible for admission to simple temporary Profession.

§ 4 - Every six months the Master makes written reports to the Grand Master about the progress made by each novice.

§ 5 - In the Novitiate there must be at least one Spiritual Director, appointed by the Grand Master and chosen from among Conventual Chaplains or Conventual Chaplains ad honorem, who has been in the Order for at least ten years. There must also be a confessor according to rule 630, § 3 of the Code of Canon Law.

Article 14

Admission of Aspirants to Novitiate

§ 1 - It pertains to the Grand Master, with the approval of the Council of Professed, to admit Aspirants to the Novitiate.

§ 2 - Knights belonging to the Second Class may request direct admission to Novitiate without passing through the status of Aspirant. They are however subject to the same procedure for request prescribed in this Code as the ordinary Aspirants.

Article 15

Documents Required for Admission to Novitiate

The following documents are required for admission to Novitiate:

- a) certificates of Baptism and Confirmation;
- b) certificate of unmarried status;
- c) testimonial letters from the Parish priest;

Article 41

Dismissal from the Order

§ 1 - Rules 686 to 693 of the Code of Canon Law apply to the Professed who leave the Order.

§ 2 - The dismissal of Professed Members from the Order is governed by rules 694 to 704 of the Code of Canon Law.

§ 3 - Those Professed who legitimately left or were dismissed from the Order cannot claim any financial right in respect of the Order, although the Order is bound to observe fairness and evangelic love towards them (rule 702 of the Code of Canon Law). Before pronouncing the Vows, the Professed must sign a declaration to this effect.

SECTION V
CONVENTUAL CHAPLAINS

Article 42

General Rule

- § 1 - What the Constitutional Charter and the Code establish regarding Professed Knights also applies to Conventual Chaplains, without prejudice to particular dispositions of Canon Law and of the following articles.
- § 2 - The Grand Master, with the approval of the Council of Professed and the favourable opinion of the Prelate, can issue special regulations for Conventual Chaplains.

Article 43

Requirements for Admission

- § 1 - Clerics of the Third Class may be admitted to Profession as Conventual Chaplains of the Order.
- § 2 - Before admission to Aspirancy or to Novitiate, the approval of the Prelate and the opinion of the Ordinary of the competent Diocese are required.

Article 44

Own Discipline

- § 1 - With their Profession, Conventual Chaplains oblige themselves to observe the three evangelical counsels. The Order guarantees their necessary living support, in accordance with the Canon Law.
- § 2 - Professed Conventual Chaplains are directly subject to the Prelate of the Order in matters relating to ecclesiastical discipline.
- § 3 - The specific priority duties of Conventual Chaplains are:
- a) commit to the spiritual care of the Members of the Order and to the apostolate of its works, as directed by the Superiors;
 - b) promote holy functions on the occasion of major religious solemnities and of those that are particularly important for the Order;
 - c) organize higher courses of religious culture, retreats and spiritual exercises;
 - d) guarantee spiritual assistance to sick Members.

Article 45

Use of Choir Dress

As regards the use of choir dress, Conventual Chaplains must abide by the Ceremonial.

SECTION VI

EVANGELICAL COUNSELS

Part One

EVANGELICAL COUNSEL OF OBEDIENCE

Article 46

The Evangelical Counsel of Obedience

The evangelical counsel of obedience moves the soul to the imitation of Jesus Christ, who became obedient even unto death on the Cross.

Article 47

The Vow of Obedience

With the Vow of obedience, Professed Knights and Chaplains bind themselves to obey the Holy Father and their legitimate Superiors in accordance with the Constitutional Charter and the Code.

Article 48

Precept for the Vow of Obedience

§ 1 - Superiors convey orders by virtue of the Vow when they use the formulas “in virtue...”, or “in the name of God...”.

§ 2 - The command cannot be imposed except for serious reasons and in writing (rule 51 of the Code of Canon Law), or in the presence of two witnesses (rule 55 of the Code of Canon Law).

Article 49

Relations with Superiors of the Order

The Professed must bear religious respect for their Superiors and must submit themselves to them in a spirit of love and devotion. Such respect does not conflict with the liberty to make known to such Superiors whatsoever they may deem useful for the Order.

Article 50

Spirit of Cooperation with Superiors

In order to promote unity and harmony, the Professed are to maintain confraternal relations and confer regularly with their Superiors and be assiduous in attendance at meetings.

Part Two

EVANGELICAL COUNSEL OF CHASTITY

Article 51

The Evangelical Counsel of Chastity

The evangelical counsel of chastity binds the Professed to live in perfect continence in celibate and to avoid any internal or external act contrary to it.

Article 52

The Vow of Chastity

§ 1 - In order to remain faithful to his vow of chastity, the Professed should make use of supernatural aids. He should be steadfast in seeking God, persevere in remaining united with Him and always in His love through daily personal, community and liturgical prayer and frequent reception of the Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist, filial devotion to the Immaculate Virgin, mortification of the senses and profound humility.

§ 2 - The Solemn Vow of chastity constitutes impediment to marriage.

Article 53

Spiritual Aids in the Exercise of Chastity

The Professed should be careful and avoid being involved in worldly social gatherings and entertainment. He must put effort in being exemplary through his conduct, honouring his status as religious within the Order of Malta.

Part Three

EVANGELICAL COUNSEL OF POVERTY

Article 54

The Evangelical Counsel of Poverty

- § 1 - In the evangelical spirit of poverty, the Professed must limit the use and disposition of temporal goods, depriving himself not only of all that is superfluous but also of all that is not really necessary. In order to be a true servant of the poor and a soldier of charity he, day after day, must tend to identify himself with the poor, in order to worship and serve Christ in the neediest.
- § 2 - The Professed is entitled to receive from the Order the necessary living support. If he receives remuneration for his job, he must share it.

Article 55

Effects of Temporary Vow of Poverty

- § 1 - With the temporary vow of poverty, the Professed renounces the independent use of temporal goods, in accordance with the Code of Canon Law and the laws of the Order.
- § 2 - The Professed in Temporary Vows retain the ownership of their personal goods and the ability to acquire other goods, including by inheritance. However, they require permission from the competent Superior in order to dispose of them.

Article 56

Use and Usufruct of Personal Goods

- § 1 - In accordance with rule 668, § 1 of the Code of Canon Law, before the First Vows and for their duration, the Novice must transfer to an individual or legal person of his choice the administration of his goods and arrange freely for their use and usufruct.
- § 2 - In order to put into effect transactions that affect those goods adversely, the administrator must be authorized by the competent Superior of the Professed.
- § 3 - Everything that the Professed acquires through his activity or intuitu religionis devolves to the Order.

Article 57

Renunciation of Goods before Solemn Profession

During the sixty days preceding solemn profession, and on condition that it is made, the Professed in Temporary Vows must renounce all the goods he has title to, in favour of whomever he wishes.

Article 58

Effects of Solemn Vow of Poverty

- § 1 - With the solemn vow of poverty, the Professed renounces not only the administration, use and usufruct of his goods, but also his ownership rights in them and the faculty to possess or acquire temporal goods.
- § 2 - Goods which come to the Professed, in any way whatsoever, after solemn profession, become the property of the Priory or Subpriory he belongs to, or to the Common Treasure in the case of Professed who belongs to an Association.
- § 3 - Before Solemn Profession, the Professed must make a will, that must be valid also under civil law, disposing freely of his present and future goods. After Profession, the will cannot be changed without the permission of the competent Superior of the Order.

Article 59

Formalities before Simple Profession

The candidate to Profession must give an inventory of his estate to the Superior, who is to ensure that it is sealed and kept in custody, so that it is not brought to the knowledge of third parties.

Article 60

Prohibition against Donations

Professed in Simple Vows cannot donate their goods by transactions “inter vivos”.

Article 61

Will prior to Solemn Profession

The original will or a copy, under sealed cover, is to be delivered to the Superior, who must see that it is properly kept.

Article 62

Special Fund for Formation of the First Class

A special fund for the formation of Members of the First Class is created within the Common Treasure.

SECTION VII

OBLIGATIONS OF THE PROFESSED IN GENERAL

Article 63

Religious Practices of the Professed

The Professed must fulfil diligently the common duties deriving from religious consecration and, unless legitimately impeded:

- a) dedicate themselves daily to reading the Holy Scriptures and to mental prayer, to the celebration of lauds, vespers and compline and other pious practices, like the Holy Rosary, the Stations of the Cross, etc.;
- b) be assiduous at the Eucharist Sacrifice, receive the Holy Communion and frequently the Sacrament of Penance, according to the advice of their Spiritual Director;
- c) take part each year in a course of spiritual exercises of at least eight full days in a religious house.

Article 64

Meetings of Professed Knights

Professed Knights are to take part in the meetings organized by their respective Priory or Subpriory, or by the entire community of the First Class.

Article 65

Public Offices

Professed Knights may, with the express permission of the Superior, accept functions and offices outside the Order, provided that these are not incompatible with their status (rule 672 of the Code of Canon Law).

CHAPTER II

MEMBERS OF THE SECOND CLASS

Article 66

Knights and Dames in Obedience

- § 1 - According to their own vocation, Knights and Dames in Obedience participate in the apostolate and mission of the Order. Their life and service be inspired by the spirituality of the Order and observe its discipline. They have special ties of spiritual solidarity with the Professed, especially with prayers. They are chosen by the Superiors among the Knights and Dames of the Third Class who have been in the Order for at least five years and maintain the name of their previous category with the addition of the words “in Obedience”.
- § 2 - They are involved in the mission and apostolate of the Order and are subject to the Superiors. They may receive special assignments, in accordance with the Constitutional Charter, with this Code and with the other laws of the Order.
- § 3 - With the Promise of Obedience, these Knights and Dames undertake the moral and legal obligation, before God and the Order, to obey the legitimate commands of their Superior in accordance with the Constitutional Charter, the Code, the laws of the Order and the Canon Law.
- § 4 - In order to facilitate the observance of the obligations undertaken, the Grand Master, with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council, issues specific Regulations.
- § 5 - The Members of the Second Class commit themselves to a more intense pious life according to the rules that apply to them. Conscious of the spiritual value of such commitment before God, they must diligently observe the divine law and the precepts of the Church, so as to be a constant example of piety and virtue, of apostolic zeal and of devotion to the Holy Church.
- § 6 - Knights and Dames in obedience undertake the moral obligation to use temporal goods according to the spirit of the Gospel.

Article 67

Requirements for Admission

A member of the Order who wishes to be admitted to the Promise of Obedience must send a written request to the Prior, Subprior or President, providing proof that he or she:

- a) professes the Catholic religion;
- b) is not subject to any canonical or moral impediment;
- c) has completed 26 years of age;
- d) has belonged to the Order for at least five years;
- e) has the written consent of his or her spouse, if married.

Article 68

Admission to Probation

The Prior, Subprior or President, with the approval of the respective Chapter or Council, grants the candidate admission to the period of probation.

Article 69

Master of Probation

The period of Probation must be spent under the guidance of a Master of Probation, normally a Chaplain of the Order, assisted when possible by a Professed Knight designated by the respective Superior.

Article 70

Preparation of Candidates

- § 1 - The candidate is to begin and conclude the probation with a course of spiritual exercises with silence of at least five consecutive full days in an approved place.
- § 2 - During the period of Probation, to last at least one year, the Master of Probation must take care that the candidate gains insight in the regulations, history, spirituality and traditions of the Order, and form the candidate in the service to Our Lords the Sick and the Poor. To this end, the candidate must practice Christian charity, visiting the sick and the poor, preferably within the framework of the Order's works.
- § 3 - At the end of the period of probation, the Master of Probation is to present to the competent Superior a written report on the conduct of the candidate and his opinion about the eligibility of the candidate for admission to the Second Class.

Article 71

Admission of Candidates to the Second Class

At the end of the period of Probation, having obtained the favourable opinion of the Master of Probation and with the agreements of the respective Chapter or Council, the Prior, Subprior or President presents the proposal for admission to the Second Class for acceptance by the Grand Master, with the approval of the Sovereign Council.

Article 72

Promise

§ 1 - The aspirant admitted to the Promise pronounces the following formula:

“I, ..., promise before God to faithfully observe the laws of the Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of St. John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes and of Malta, to carry out (for a term of three years) the duties proper to Knights and Dames in Obedience and to render due obedience to whichever Superior shall be given to me. So help me God, the Immaculate Virgin, Saint John the Baptist our Glorious Patron, Blessed Fra’ Gerard our Holy Founder, and all the Saints of the Order”.

§ 2 - The Promise must be received by the Grand Master or his delegate, being a Knight of Justice or a Conventual Chaplain, in the presence of two witnesses.

§ 3 - The Promise is valid for three consecutive years and may be renewed by request of the Knight or Dame in Obedience, subject to the opinion of the Superiors, every three years.

§ 4 - Upon expiration of the third three-year period, the promise must be made in final form with the following formula:

“I, ..., calling on the name of God, promise to faithfully observe the laws of the Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of St. John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes and of Malta, to carry out in perpetuity the duties proper to Knights and Dames in Obedience and to render due obedience to whichever Superior shall be given to me. So help me God, the Immaculate Virgin, Saint John the Baptist our Glorious Patron, Blessed Fra’ Gerard our Holy Founder, and all the Saints of the Order”.

§ 5 - A Knight or Dame who is not admitted to the renewal of the temporary Promise or does not make the final promise returns to the Third Class.

Article 73

Documents of the Promise

§ 1 - The document attesting the Promise is to be signed by the Knight or Dame who made the Promise, by the person who received the Promise, and by two witnesses.

§ 2 - The original document is to be kept in the archives of the Grand Magistry and, in certified copy, in the archives of the Priory, Subpriory or Association.

§ 3 - The ritual of the Promise is regulated by the Ceremonial.

Article 74

Spiritual Duties

Knights or Dames in Obedience should:

- a) join their confreres and sisters in the prayers and in works, and observe the provisions of the Grand Master;
- b) attend Holy Mass frequently, diligently approach the Sacrament of Penance and participate in parish life;
- c) take part each year in a course of spiritual exercises of at least three consecutive full days in an approved place, and take part in the formation courses and meetings called by the Superiors;
- d) take part in the works of the Order as instructed by the Superior;
- e) follow the rules of spiritual life approved by the Grand Master with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council.

Article 75

Change of Tasks

A Knight or Dame in Obedience who, for just cause, has difficulty in fulfilling a prescribed task, should talk to the competent Superior, who may entrust to him or her another task.

Article 76

Use of the Robe and Insignia

The use of the Robe and insignia by Knights and Dames in Obedience is governed by the Ceremonial.

Article 77

Entrustment of Tasks and Offices, Oaths

- § 1 - The Superiors may entrust to Knights and Dames in Obedience, subject to the restrictions provided in the Constitutional Charter and in the Code, special tasks and offices.
- § 2 - In the entrustment of tasks and offices, the Superiors must take into account the obligations of the state in life, the abilities, the particular professional training and the availability of each Knight and Dame in Obedience.

§ 3 - Upon undertaking such tasks or offices, Knights and Dames in Obedience must make the following oath before the Superiors:

“I, ..., calling on the name of God, promise to faithfully abide by the duties of my task (office) and to scrupulously observe the directives that the Superiors will give to me according to the laws of the Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of St. John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes and of Malta. So I promise, commit myself and swear. So help me God and these Holy Gospels that I lay my hands unto”.

§ 4 - The oath must be pronounced upon the undertaking of every new task or office.

Article 78

Resignation and Cessation of Tasks and Offices

§ 1 - Knights and Dames in Obedience, for just cause, may resign at any time from the tasks or offices held.

§ 2 - The resignation must be justified and presented in writing to the Superiors, who have the authority to accept or reject it.

§ 3 - The Superiors may, for serious reasons, remove a Knight or Dame in Obedience from his or her tasks and offices.

§ 4 - A Knight or Dame in Obedience who ceases to belong to the Second Class or to the Order cease to hold all of their tasks and offices.

§ 5 - Knights in Obedience who are ordained Deacons are released from the Promise, cease to belong to the Second Class and return to the Third Class, in the category of Magistral Deacons.

Article 79

Disciplinary Sanctions

§ 1 - The Superior has the duty to supervise the observance of the obligations of the Members of the Second Class who are subject to him. In certain cases he may delegate such function to a Knight of Justice or, if there are no Knights of Justice available, to a Knight or Dame in Obedience.

§ 2 - Culpable failure to abide by the obligations deriving from the Promise or from the oath implies the application of the disciplinary sanctions established by the laws of the Order.

§ 3 - No one can be subject to disciplinary procedures for facts not expressly contemplated by the laws of the Order, nor punished with sanctions that are not established by the laws of the Order.

§ 4 - Disciplinary sanctions, except milder ones, may be imposed only at the end of a judicial proceeding and guaranteeing the natural right to defence.

Article 80

Passage to Religious Profession

An unmarried Knight in Obedience who asks to be admitted to the First Class is bound to observe all the prescribed norms; however, he may ask to be released from Aspirancy and be directly admitted to Novitiate.

Article 81

Withdrawal from the Promise

- § 1 - Knights and Dames in Obedience may withdraw from the Promise for important personal reasons. The written request must be justified and addressed to the competent Superior, who forwards it to the Grand Master, together with his opinion. The Grand Master, with the advice of the Sovereign Council, may grant dispensation.
- § 2 - Upon notification of the dispensation, the Knight or Dame in Obedience ceases to be part of the Second Class and returns to the Third.

CHAPTER III

MEMBERS OF THE THIRD CLASS

Article 82

Donats, Knights and Dames, Deacons and Chaplains

- § 1 - In order to accomplish its mission, the Order accepts lay believers as well as Priests and Permanent Deacons, belonging exclusively to the secular clergy, who wish to experience the spirituality of the Order of Malta and dedicate themselves to the hospitaller, relief and charitable works of the Order, according to the norms that apply to them.
- § 2 - Each member of the Third Class pursues his or her sanctification as a layperson or as a consecrated minister, drawing inspiration from the ideals and the spiritual discipline of the Order. For love of God, they serve Christ in our lords the poor, and must always be His true testimonies in truth and in charity, according to the teachings of the Church. They follow the guidance the Superiors and respect them.

Article 83

Preparatory Year and Admission of Members of the Third Class

- § 1- The admission into the Third Class must be preceded by a preparatory period of at least one year, during which the candidates are initiated to the spiritual discipline of the Order and become familiar with its regulations, its laws and its history.
- § 2 - For admission to the Order, the candidate must be presented to the Grand Master by the competent Prior, Subprior or President, through the Chancery of the Grand Magistry.
- § 3 - The admission of Members of the Third Class is granted by the Grand Master with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council.
- § 4 - Presentation of nobiliary proofs does not constitute in itself a right to be admitted to the Order.
- § 5 - The nobiliary requisites of those who aspire to be received into the Order must be examined on the basis of special regulations issued by the Grand Master with the approval of the Sovereign Council.

Article 84

Documents for Admission

The following documents must be attached to the request for admission signed by the candidate:

- a) birth certificate, certificate of Baptism and Confirmation proving adult age, and certificate of family status;
- b) special titles of merit received;
- c) recommendation by the competent Parish Priest regarding the candidate's life and conduct;
- d) certificate of completion of the preparatory year;
- e) request form filled and signed by the candidate and countersigned by the Prior, Subprior or President concerned.

Article 85

Admission of Presbyters and Permanent Deacons

- § 1 - The admission of Members of the secular clergy requires the previous consent of the competent Ordinary and the favourable opinion of the Prelate.
- § 2 - The admission of Grand Cross Conventual Chaplains ad honorem requires the previous favourable opinion of the Cardinalis Patronus, with the advice of the Prelate.
- § 3 - With the advice of the Sovereign Council, the Grand Master may receive or promote a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Catholic Church to the dignity of Bailiff Grand Cross of Honour and Devotion.

§ 4 - Knights of Honour and Devotion and Knights of Grace and Devotion who are ordained priests become Conventual Chaplains ad honorem; Knights of Magistral Grace and Donats become Magistral Chaplains.

§ 5 - Knights and Donats who receive permanent deaconship become Magistral Deacons.

Article 86

Requirements for Admission

§ 1 - In order to be admitted to the Order, candidates must profess the Catholic Faith.

§ 2 - For the admission of Priests and Permanent Deacons a period of formation is mandatory.

Article 87

Admission “Motu Proprio”

The admission “motu proprio” to the Third Class by the Grand Master must be communicated in advance to the Sovereign Council and to the Prior, Subprior or President of the Association concerned.

Article 88

Duties and Rights

§ 1 - In order to live fully their status by the charism of the Order the Members of the Third Class must conduct themselves, in accordance with the Constitutional Charter, this Code and the laws of the Order, so as to give Christian example in their private as well as in their public life, practicing and defending the Catholic religion, exercising charity towards the poor and the sick, especially in the Order’s hospitaller, social and humanitarian relief works.

§ 2 - They may take functions and offices according to the Laws of the Order.

§ 3 - They participate in the privileges and in the spiritual benefits of the Order and are to pray daily for the Pope, the Church, the Superiors and all the Members of the Order, for Our Lords the Sick and Our Lords the Poor, and to recite the Knight’s Prayer every day.

Article 89

Cooperation between Conventual Chaplains and Chaplains of the Third Class

Chaplains belonging to the Third Class are to cooperate as far as possible with Conventual Chaplains in compliance with the directives of the competent Superiors and of the Prelate of the Order.

Article 90

Rite of Admission

The admission into the Order takes place in accordance with the Ceremonial.

Article 91

Disciplinary Sanctions

- § 1 - The Members of the Third Class whose conduct is inconsistent with their belonging to the Order are subject to the disciplinary sanctions provided by the laws of the Order.
- § 2 - No one can be subject to disciplinary procedures for facts not expressly contemplated by the laws of the Order, nor punished with sanctions that are not established by the laws of the Order.
- § 3 - Disciplinary sanctions, except milder ones, may be imposed only at the end of a judicial proceeding and guaranteeing the natural right to defence.

CHAPTER IV

DISCIPLINARY PROVISIONS FOR MEMBERS OF THE SECOND AND THIRD CLASS

Article 92

Forms of Disciplinary Sanctions

Disciplinary sanctions take the form of:

- a) warning;
- b) suspension of the exercise of the rights inherent to membership in the Order;
- c) dismissal from the Order.

Article 93

Warning

Warning is the formal provision given in writing, or, if required by serious circumstances, verbally in the presence of two witnesses, by the legitimate Superior; the Member who receives the warning is invited to correct his or her inappropriate behaviour or to meet diligently his or her duties towards the Church and the Order.

Article 94

Suspension

The suspension of the exercise of the rights inherent to membership in the Order is a temporary disciplinary measure that may be imposed when a member:

- a) notwithstanding two warnings received in a time span of fifteen days from each other, continues behaving in a manner inappropriate for a Member of the Order or disrespecting his or her duties towards the Church or the Order;
- b) notwithstanding the two warnings as per letter a) above, remains in arrears with the payment of the prescribed contribution for at least two years;
- c) is under investigation by an ecclesiastical or civil court in such circumstances that make his or her suspension appropriate.

Article 95

Dismissal

Dismissal is a final disciplinary measure that may be imposed if a Member of the Order:

- a) notwithstanding two warnings received in a time span of fifteen days from each other, continues adopting a conduct incompatible with his or her membership in the Order and is gravely defaulting in his or her duties towards the Church or the Order;
- b) after being suspended for being in arrears, fails to settle such arrears within the subsequent two years;
- c) has been convicted by final judgment by an ecclesiastical or civil court.

Article 96

Enforcement of Disciplinary Measures

§ 1 - Warning, being of non-sanctioning nature, is given by decree of the legitimate Superior in writing, or verbally in the presence of two witnesses. A warning is validly given if:

- a) the accused was made aware of the charges and of any evidence against him or her and is guaranteed the right to defence;
- b) the reasons of the measure are adequately explained.

§ 2 - An appeal may be filed with the Magistral Courts no later than fifteen days (beyond which term the right to appeal is forfeited) from receiving the warning or being served the decree. The appeal determines the automatic revocation of the warning and of the initiation of the disciplinary procedure by the judicial authorities of the Order against the appellant.

§ 3 - The disciplinary measures of suspension of the exercise of the rights inherent to membership in the Order, or of dismissal, are imposed by the judicial authorities of the Order according to the following provisions.

Article 97

Preliminaries to Disciplinary Procedures

- § 1 - The initiation of a disciplinary procedure pertains to the competent Superior, who must give notice thereof to the Chancery of the Magistral Court, submitting the formal charge where the contested facts and behaviours are stated.
- § 2 - In the case of a lay member of the Sovereign Council, or of a lay Regent of a Priory or Subpriory, or of a lay President of an Association, the procedure is ordered by the Grand Master, who appoints a disciplinary commission for the specific case. No Member of the Sovereign Council, as well as no Prior, Subprior, Regent or President may be components of such commission.
- § 3 - The Grand Master, after receiving notice from the Chancery of the Magistral Court, may, for just cause and with the consent of the Sovereign Council, call the case to himself, again setting up a special disciplinary commission.
- § 4 - As a precautionary measure, upon request of the Superior who initiated the disciplinary procedure or ex officio, the Grand Master may suspend, with the consent of the Sovereign Council, one who is subject to a disciplinary procedure. If the precautionary suspension is imposed upon a lay Member of the Sovereign Council or of a President, or of a lay Regent of a Priory or Subpriory, the consent of two thirds of the Members of the Sovereign Council is required.
- § 5 - After a term of fifteen days from receiving the notice from the Chancery of the Magistral Court with no action by the Grand Master as per § 3, the competent Superior serves on the disciplinary commission a copy of the formal charge referred to in § 1.

Article 98

Disciplinary Commission

- § 1 - A permanent Disciplinary Commission is constituted in each Priory, Subpriory and Association. The commission, composed of three members and assisted by a secretary, is in charge of investigating and deciding in disciplinary procedures.
- § 2 - The Members of the Disciplinary Commission, one of which acting as president, and its secretary, are appointed by the Prior, Subprior or President with the approval of the Chapter of the Priory or Subpriory or of the Council of the Association.
- § 3 - The Disciplinary Commission remains in office for the duration of the mandate of the appointing Prior, Subprior or President. The revocation of one of its members or of the entire commission requires the consent of the Grand Master, with the advice of the Sovereign Council.

Article 99

Disciplinary Procedure

- § 1 - After receiving the notice as per art. 98, § 3, the President of the Disciplinary Commission summons the person concerned, allowing a term of at least thirty days for appearing before the commission, in person or represented by a counsel qualified to practice before ecclesiastical or civil courts.
- § 2 - Within this term the accused may exercise his or her right to challenge any member of the disciplinary commission. The Magistral Court of First Instance decides upon such challenge.
- § 3 - The discussion of evidence follows the principle of controversy with the accused, always guaranteeing the actual exercise of the right to defence.
- § 4 - The witnesses are summoned ex officio by the President of the Commission or upon request of the accused; before being heard, witnesses must take oath de veritate dicenda and after being heard must sign the minutes of their testimony;
- § 5 - The Secretary of the Commission prepares the minutes of the hearing and signs them together with the President.
- § 6 - The hearings are not public and secrecy is maintained upon the proceedings.
- § 7 - Upon conclusion of the enquiry, the President of the Disciplinary Commission orders that the proceeding be published, setting a term of at least thirty days for presenting the defence brief.
- § 8 - For just cause, the President, with the unanimous approval of the Members of the Commission, may order that copies of the proceedings be not released to the accused or to his or her defence counsel, but that they be only allowed to view the documents.
- § 9 - Under pain of nullity, the only documents usable by the commission are those filed in the records for the case.

Article 100

Disciplinary decision

- § 1 - The Disciplinary Commission decides by majority of its members and must release its reasoned decision within sixty days from receiving the defence brief.
- § 2 - The decision of the commission is served on the accused and on the competent Superior.

Article 101

Notification of the Disciplinary Decision

- § 1 - Notification of the disciplinary decision is conveyed in writing by registered delivery.

§ 2 - Official record of the notification having been made must be sent to the Magistral Archives.

Article 102

Appeal

§ 1 - Within thirty days from notification, a documented appeal in writing to the Magistral Courts against disciplinary decisions is allowed.

§ 2 - The appeal may be mailed by registered letter with notice of receipt or other appropriate legitimate means, the relevant mailing date being the date of reference.

§ 3 - Appeals against decisions of the Disciplinary Commission appointed by the Grand Master pursuant to art. 97, §§ 2 and 3 must be filed with the Apostolic See.

CHAPTER V

GRADES AND HONOURS

Article 103

Grades of the Order

§ 1 - The Members of the Second and Third Class, except the clergy, are divided into the grades of:

- a) Donat of Devotion;
- b) Knight or Dame;
- c) Knight or Dame Grand Cross.

§ 2 - Within the respective grades, Knights and Dames are divided into:

- a) Knight or Dame of Magistral Grace;
- b) Knight or Dame of Grace and Devotion;
- c) Knight or Dame of Honour and Devotion.

§ 3 - The dignity of Bailiff may be conferred on Knights Grand Cross of Justice, Knights Grand Cross of Honour and Devotion of the Second and Third Class, as well as on Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church.

§ 4 - The honour of the Sash may be conferred on Knights and Dames Grand Cross of Grace and Devotion and on Knights and Dames Grand Cross of Magistral Grace.

§ 5 - The grade of Chaplain Grand Cross may be conferred on Professed Chaplains and Conventual Chaplain.

§ 6 - The form of the insignia of the various Classes and grades, as well as the order of precedence among Classes, are established by regulations approved by the Grand Master with the consent of the Sovereign Council.

Article 104

Treatment of Commander

The treatment of Commander belongs by right to those Knights of Honour and Devotion who are holders of hereditary ius patronatus Commanderies.

Article 105

Honours of the Order

§ 1 - Honours may be conferred on those who have gained special merits. The rules governing such conferment are established in specific Regulations.

§ 2 - The candidates for honours must be person of exemplary integrity.

§ 3 - No one who receives pro Merito Melitensi honours becomes, for this mere reason, a Member of the Order.

TITLE III
GOVERNMENT OF THE ORDER

SECTION I
Central Government

Part One
GRAND MASTER

Article 106

Duties

The Grand Master, as the Head of the Order, is to devote himself entirely to the growth of the Order's works and serve as an example of true Christian life to all Members.

Article 107

Incompatibility of the Office with Other Positions

§ 1 - With the election to Grand Master, all offices and prerogatives he had previously been vested with in the Order cease and become vacant.

§ 2 - The Grand Master must immediately give up all other activities incompatible with his position.

Article 108

Residence

The residence of the Grand Master is at the seat of the Order, from which he may be absent only for official duties or for justified reasons.

Article 109

Visitations to the Institutions of the Order

§ 1 - At least once every five years, the Grand Master is to personally visit the Priors, Sub-Priors and Associations, as well as the works of the Order.

§ 2 - Exceptionally, in certain cases the Grand Master may delegate a Professed to make the visit referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Article 110

Effectiveness of the Decrees of the Grand Master

The decrees of the Grand Master do not have effect unless they are countersigned by the Grand Chancellor, or in any case by a High Office.

Article 111

Publication of Documents

The Grand Master provides that the records of his government are published in the Bollettino Ufficiale, where the documents of the Holy See concerning the Order are also published.

Article 112

Former Grand Masters

A Grand Master who ends his mandate or resigns from office takes, for his entire lifetime, the dignity of titular Bailiff Grand Prior and is subject only to the Head of the Order.

Part Two

EXTRAORDINARY GOVERNMENT

Article 113

Government of the Order during Vacancy of the Office of Grand Master

In all cases when the Order cannot be governed by a Grand Master pursuant to art. 18 of the Constitutional Charter, a Lieutenant ad interim replaces him.

Part Three

LIEUTENANT AD INTERIM

Article 114

Duties

The Lieutenant ad interim informs the Holy Father, the Heads of States with whom the Order maintains diplomatic relations and the various organization of the Order that the office of Grand Master is vacant.

Article 115

Powers

§ 1 - The Lieutenant ad interim limits his actions to the ordinary administration, refraining from taking initiatives that are not necessary or urgent.

§ 2 - During the interim government, the admission of new Members, the bestowal of honours, the class passages and all promotions are suspended.

Part Four

LIEUTENANT OF THE GRAND MASTER

Article 116

Powers

The Lieutenant of the Grand Master enjoys the same powers as the Grand Master and may therefore put into effect actions going beyond ordinary administration.

Responsibility of Pories, Sub-Pories and Associations for the Payment of Contributions and Fees

Pories, Sub-Pories and Associations are responsible for the payment of the annual dues, the passage fees of their members.

Article 175

Penalties for Omitted Payment

- § 1 - A Priory, Subpriory or Association that fails to meet its payment obligation to the Grand Magistracy on or before the fifteenth of March of the subsequent year, will not be entitled to propose admissions of Members or conferment of honours of the Order, and will not have right of representation at the meetings of the Chapter General and of the Council Complete of State until its delinquency is cured.
- § 2 - In case of delay in the payments to the Grand Magistracy of annual contributions or passage fees owed by a Priory, Subpriory or Association responsible for them, the Sovereign Council will order an independent audit at the cost of the above-said bodies.

Part Two

BOARD OF AUDITORS

Article 176

Duties

The Board of Auditors:

- a) supervises the annual accounts and their audits;
- b) sees that approved budgets are respected;
- c) verifies from time to time the accounting and cash balances of the Common Treasure;
- d) supervises and monitors the administration of the goods of the Order and of Order bodies as a whole, seeing especially that the due procedural requirements are fulfilled in the management of such goods, and may provide recommendations on the subject;
- e) is assisted by qualified independent auditors in the regular annual audits. The Grand Master is to choose such auditors with the consent of the Sovereign Council, according to selection and rotation criteria established by specific regulations approved by the Sovereign Council;
- f) provides advice on any matter of economic or financial nature, upon request of the Grand Chancellor or of the Receiver of the Common Treasure;
- g) upon request of the Sovereign Council, presents to the Council audit reports about specific financial issues.

Article 177

Meetings and Expense Refunds

- § 1 - Ordinary meetings of the Board of Auditors are held twice a year and whenever its President deems it necessary. Extraordinary meetings may be held upon request of the Grand Master, the Sovereign Council, the Council of Professed or the Receiver of the Common Treasure.
- § 2 - The members of the Board of Auditors are to be reimbursed of actual and justified expenses.

Article 178

Minutes of Meetings

The minutes of the meetings of the Board of Auditors, approved by its members and signed by its President, are sent in copy to the Grand Master, the Sovereign Council, the Council of Professed and the Receiver of the Common Treasure.

Article 179

Report of the President to the Chapter General

The President presents to the Chapter General a report on the activities of the Board of Auditors.

SECTION III

ORGANIZATION OF THE ORDER

Part One
JURIDICAL PERSONS

Article 180

Juridical Personality of Entities of the Order

- § 1 - Pories, Sub-Pories and Associations have juridical personality under Canon law, insofar as they are part of the juridical structure of the Order.
- § 2 - Other entities, such as Foundations or Commanderies, may enjoy juridical personality on grounds of long-term possession or granted by the Grand Master, with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council.

Article 181

Statutes of Non-Jurisdictional Entities

The Grand Master, with the consent of the Sovereign Council, may issue statutes for various non-jurisdictional instrumental entities, and set the relevant requirements.

Article 182

Acquisition of Juridical Personality in National Law

Subject to authorization from the Grand Master, the public bodies of the Order may acquire juridical personality in the Country where they are intended to operate according to their statutes.

CHAPTER II

PRIORIES, SUB-PRIORIES AND ASSOCIATIONS

SECTION I

RULES IN COMMON

Article 183

Establishment of Priories, Sub-Priories and Associations

- § 1 - The Grand Master, with the deliberative vote of the Sovereign Council and of the Council of Professed, proceeds to the canonical establishment of a Priory, Subpriory and Association, determining its territorial boundaries. In the same manner, these bodies are merged together, dismembered or closed.
- § 2 - At least five members of the First Class are required for the constitution of a Priory, three members of the First Class for a Subpriory, and at least fifteen Knights/Dames for an Association. They must reside in the territory of the Priory, Subpriory or Association to be constituted.
- § 3 - If the requirements in par. 2 are met, the corresponding body must be constituted, unless the Grand Master, for serious reasons and with the favourable advice of the Council of Professed and of the Sovereign Council, decides otherwise.

Article 184

Purpose

The purpose of the Priors, Sub-Priors and Associations of the Order is to carry out the purposes of the Order as established in art. 2 of the Constitutional Charter in their respective territories, under the direction of the Grand Master.

Article 185

Membership

- § 1 - All the Members of the Order residing in the territory of a Priory, Subpriory or Association are rightful members of them. Except in special circumstances, membership is allowed only in one Priory, Subpriory or Association.
- § 2 - The Members residing in territories where there are no Associations constituted, are members of the territory determined by the Grand Master.
- § 3 - Any member who, for justified historical reasons, requests admission to another Priory, Subpriory or Association than the one competent for his or her territory, must obtain permission from the Grand Master.

SECTION II

PRIORIES AND SUB-PRIORIES

Article 186

Appointment of First Superior and Capitulars

The Grand Master appoints the first Superior and the Members of the Chapter of a newly constituted Priory or Subpriory.

Article 187

Duties of the Superior

By his example, the Superior should foster the practice of religious virtues and the loyalty to the commitments of the Order; in his territory, he is responsible of all local hospitaller and charitable works of the Order. In addition, he must:

- a) make known the decrees of the Holy See and of the Grand Master and ensure their observance;

- b) encourage the Members' participation in the life and works of the Order and follow their spiritual growth;
- c) encourage and take care of specific vocations according to the charism of the Order.

Article 188

Priory and Subpriory Chapters

The Superior calls the Chapter to address particularly important issues at least four times in a year.

Article 189

Spiritual Exercises

- § 1 - Every year, each Priory and Subpriory must hold a course of spiritual exercises of at least five full days for all their Members. The Subprior sets the place and date for them.
- § 2 - The Superior determines additional periods of confraternal life for the Members of the First Class.

Article 190

Administrative Report

Every year the Superior presents a report on his administration to the Grand Master and, for the aspects of respective concern, to the Council of Professed and the Sovereign Council. He also presents to the Receiver of the Common Treasure a report on the financial position of his Priory, approved by the Priory Chapter.

SECTION III

NATIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Article 191

Purpose

Subject to the restrictions imposed by their peculiar nature, the purpose of the Associations is to implement, under the authority of their legitimate Superiors, the objectives of the Order as set forth in art. 2 of the Constitutional Charter.

Article 192

Appointment of First President and Board Members

Upon constituting an Association under art. 46, § 1 of the Constitutional Charter, the Grand Master appoints its first President and the Member of its Board in accordance with article 50, § 1 of the Constitutional Charter.

Article 193

Duties of President and Board

By their example, the President and the Board Members should foster the practice of religious virtues and the loyalty to the commitments of the Order; in their territory, the President and his Board are responsible of all local hospitaller and charitable works of the Order. The President in particular must:

- a) make known the decrees of the Holy See and of the Grand Master and ensure their observance;
- b) encourage the Members' participation in the life and works of the Order and follow their spiritual growth;
- c) encourage, with the help of the Professed or the Chaplains of the Order, specific vocations according to the charism of the Order.

Article 194

Meetings of the Board

The President calls the Board to address particularly important matters at least six times in a year. The Board may also be called whenever the President deems it necessary or whenever requested in writing by at least three Board members.

Article 195

Spiritual Exercises

§ 1 - Every year, each Association must hold a course of spiritual exercises of at least three full days for all its members. The President and the Chief Chaplain set the place and date for them.

§ 2 - The President and the Chief Chaplain determine additional periods of mandatory retreats for the Members of the Second Class.

Article 196

Administrative Report

Every year the President and the Board present a report on their administration to the Grand Master and, for the aspects of respective concern, to the Council of Professed and the Sovereign Council.

They also present to the Receiver of the Common Treasure the annual accounts of the Association, accompanied by a report on its financial position.

SECTION IV

DELEGATIONS

Article 197

Establishment

- § 1 - The establishment or the suppression of a Delegation in the territories of a Priory or Subpriory is decided by the Prior or Subprior with the consent of the respective Chapter, that also approves the Regulations for the Delegations.
- § 2 - In the case of Associations, the establishment of a Delegation is determined by the President, with the approval of its Board, provided that the Association itself has previously drafted specific Regulations for the Delegations, approved by the Grand Master with the advice of the Sovereign Council.
- § 3 - In exceptional cases, by agreement of the respective Presidents and with the permission of the Grand Master, Delegations of one Association may exist in the territory of another Association.

SECTION V

WORKS OF THE ORDER

Article 198

“Obsequium pauperum”

- § 1 - In search of a tangible response to the love of Christ, the early Members of the Order recognized and served the Lord in the sick pilgrims in the Holy Land. Obsequium pauperum has its origin in the divine compassion for the misery of the world, which obliges the Members of the Order to serve Jesus Christ, who is present in the sick.
- § 2 - With respect to tuitio fidei, the members of the Order, recognizing the image of God in every individual, are especially called upon to become involved in those situations where human life is threatened in its God-given essence and dignity.

Article 199

Organization of “Obsequium Pauperum”

- § 1 - It is the responsibility of Priors, Sub-Priors and Association to set up, in their respective territories, works of medical, charitable and social assistance where the Members of the various Classes are called to fulfil personally the mission they have committed themselves to.
- § 2 - The Hospitallers of Priors, Sub-Priors and Associations are responsible for the works referred to in § 1. The Hospitallers carry out their duties in harmony with the Priors, Subpriors and Presidents.
- § 3 - Activities outside the territory of jurisdiction, as well as those arising from agreements between organizations of the Order, are to be undertaken with the approval of the Grand Hospitaller who is in charge of their coordination according to art. 121 of this Code.
- § 4 - The administrators of the works of the Order must send each year a report to the Priory, Subpriory and Association on the status of operations, as well as the annual accounts.
- § 5 - The Grand Magistracy initiates works only in exceptional cases.

Article 200

International Cooperation

In view of the international responsibilities of the Order and in order to favour the promotion of works, the international cooperation of the Associations of the Order is of particular importance. Therefore, all the organization of the Order, within their capacities, must cooperate with the Grand Master in the apostolic activities of supranational nature.

Article 201

Non-Jurisdictional Instrumental Entities for the Accomplishment of Works of the Order

- § 1 - Non-jurisdictional instrumental entities of Priors, Sub-Priors and Associations are: foundations, associations, societies, relief services, legally independent works of the Order and similar organization established for the accomplishment of Order works.
- § 2 - Non-jurisdictional instrumental entities may be established by Priors, Sub-Priors and Associations, abiding by the provisions in their statutes and by the following rules:
- a) the statutes of a non-jurisdictional instrumental entity cannot become effective until they are approved by the competent entity of the Order. The same applies to any amendments to such statutes;
 - b) non-jurisdictional instrumental entities must report their activities and financial position to the competent entity of the Order;

- c) the person in charge of a non-jurisdictional instrumental entity may not take office without the approval of the competent entity. He or she should preferably be a Member of the Order;
- d) non-jurisdictional instrumental entities can use the Insignia and the name of the Order, or refer to them, solely with the authorization of the competent entity. Such permission may be revoked by the competent entity with no need for justification.

§ 3 - If the minimum requirements above cannot be set out in full in the statutes under the national laws, their actual observance must be assured by other means appropriate for the circumstance.

§ 4 - The institutions and activities to which the entities of the Order only provide support but that are not directly administered by and are not part of the property of those entities, may not bear the Insignia and the name of the Order, unless it is expressly stated that the institution or activity is merely supported by the Order, and that the latter takes no responsibility for them.

TITLE IV

Article 202

Transitional Provisions

The Grand Master, in accordance with the decision of the Sovereign Council, issues transitional provisions to regulate any matters pending upon the coming into force of this Code.
